The propeller Santa Coux, Capt Bennett, sailed Sunday, th 25th Aug from San Francisco, about 10 A M; had N W winds the first two days out and after that moderate trades and good weather; sighted Maui at dusk on the evening of Wednesday the instant and was telegraphed here at 4 P M on the 5th; came nside about 7 same evening.

The bark Zoe, Capt Lawton, arrived here Wednesday the 4th instant from a trading voyage North, having been absent from our port 158 days; she was last from Bhering's Straits, leaving there August 1st, she consequently had a 34 days' passage down. Capt Lawton found much ice in the Arctic and the season very backward; a number of the fleet in that sea had left to try their luck in the Ochotsk. He kindly furnishes us with the follow-

NAVAL.

Arrival of the U. S. Flag Ship Lauenster. This splendid vessel, bearing the fing of the Commander of the U. S. Navai forces in the Pacific, Fing officer Montgomery, arrived in port on the evening of the Sith instant after an absence of three and a half months, during which time she has sailed over some fitteen thousand miles. The Lancaster has visited the Marquesas and Sandwich Islands and the Mexican coast, and has, during the entire cruise, made under sail some of the best time on record. Her officers and crew are all well. This ship will probably remain in our waters some time, and relieve the Saranac ordered to San Francisco. lieve the Saranac ordered to San Francisco. The Lancaster arrived at Acapulco from Honolulu in eleven

The U. S. steam frigate Saranac was yesterday taken to Ta-boga in order that the damage recently sustained by her in grounding during the late swell, may be more fully ascertained prior to her leaving for San Francisco. It may probably be ne-cessary to discharge her coal, provisions and batteries, so as to lighten her sufficiently to effect a proper examination.

The U. S steamer Wyoming has been ordered to San Francisco, and not to Panama as previously reported. [By this mail she is reported as arrived and gone into dock at Mare Island - Rept. Pol ]
